

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing in opposition to the introduction of Low Power FM that will impact the current offering of K-Love Radio.

K-Love is a great service for my family in San Diego. Any impact to K-Love would remove the best alternative for family friendly radio without offensive music and commercials.

This service is important for the public interest as it provides free alternative family friendly radio programming

Best Regards,
Robert Briggs